We are happy to share the moment today that she is P.Smithika, our Stage -3 student. The background behind her way of speaking politely and in soft nature is because of the grooming, We give our children in their Montessori classes. To add colours to this concept, The famous writer K.Bharathi has written an article on the way of teaching and handling children in Montessori in the Tamil Hindu Newspaper.

Hats off to you Smithika for being a Viral Baby Overnight.

To be sure, such relationship require a lot of work by both educators and parents. We appreciate few of our parents who voluntarily too part in most of our school celebration during this year.
